Question

Freedom of Information request - Criminals have outmanoeuvred the no calibre police with criminal electronic weaponry systems throughout the UK leaving no visible evidence of crimes

Dear Northamptonshire Police and Crime Commissioner,

Northamptonshire Police have responsibility for enforcing UK law at 422 Communications Squadron RAF Croughton which is where criminal delinquents from America have plugged in criminal entertainment electronic weaponry consoles to electronic weaponry systems throughout our former Society (the cybernetic weaponized internet and the radiation weapon satellite network), in order to have criminal power over our land and do crime invisibly anywhere and radiate, and disable and blind with cybernetic crime, and cause foetal damage with cybernetic crime, on any member of the general public they randomly choose. They are very proud of this.

These criminal delinquents are also very proud of having outmanoeuvred the no-calibre police force, and laugh at them as they patrol the perimeter of RAF Croughton, which is all they are fit for, whilst they do horrendous crime throughout society.

English Squadron Leader Jane Robertson who heads 422 Communications Squadron is part of a bribery corruption racket going on there, where junior criminal delinquent weapons scientists from America bribe members of the MOD to waiver military law at 422 Communications Squadron and have criminal entertainment electronic weaponry consoles set up at 422 Communications Squadron and do crime on the general public for their criminal delinquent gratification. She knows all about it.

A junior criminal delinquent weapons scientist from America who calls himself Spike has recently bribed an MOD employee US$1.4 million dollars, downloaded to a bank account.

What are you doing to rectify this situation? Or are you no calibre and have coping difficulties?
